NOMINATION PROCEDURE

Note: New members are elected by the Committee and it often happens that the committee has no information other than the details on the nomination form concerning persons proposed membership. Proposers and seconders of candidates are invited to assist the committee in every case by giving the fullest information possible in the space provided, stating under what circumstances the candidate is known, with details of career, flying interests etc.

If you do not know two Club Members to propose and second you, please submit the application with the "Proposer" section left blank. Instead, provide us with two checkable references. These may be of a business or personal nature but should not be a close relative. Committee meetings are held on the first Wednesday of each month. To be eligible for consideration, applications need to be submitted 10 days prior. Applications that fail to do so will be considered at the subsequent meeting. In the intervening period you will be able to use the social facilities of the Club.
